Ivan Thomas, DeTV founder and owner of Bluefilms Media Group, presents his program “Photography as an expression of love through art, honest conversation and community building” on November 27 at a meeting of the Delaware Photographic Society.

Photographer and local multi-media mogul, Ivan C. “Big Ivan” Thomas is one of the most recognizable faces in Delaware. An award-winning local producer, director, editor, online activist and relentlessly positive community organizer, Ivan understands the science and psychology of film, media and TV, and he loves communicating and creating through the medium. In this engaging, story-driven presentation, Ivan shares techniques and tips for creating compelling images by capturing the essence of people and events in the local community through honest connections and courageous conversation.
